ORDER

UPON informal motion of the respondent for an extension of time to determine whether it will seek an order protecting from disclosure two documents which are responsive to this Court's October 15, 2021 Order;

AND UPON reading the materials filed in respect of the motion;

AND UPON determining that the requested extension should be granted because the relevant criteria favour its grant, namely, that the respondent has demonstrated a continuing intention to pursue the issue and has valid reason for the additional time requested and because the short extension sought will not prejudice the applicant;

AND UPON determining that it is in the interest of justice that the requested extension be granted;

THIS COURT ORDERS that the time for the respondent to serve and file an informal motion to protect the two documents from disclosure is extended to January 30, 2022.
